The Episcopaltans. CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—The house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal church began its sixth day's session at 9 o'clock this gan as sixth day's session at 9 o'clock this morning. The committee on canons submitted reports recommending that no church edifice be consecrated while any debt or money lein rested upon it in any

The committee also asked that the question of the consertation of colored people to Episcopacy be referred to the committee on constitution. Report placed on calendar. Messenger from the house of bishops reported that the bishops had decided that there is no constitutional obstacle to consideration and adoption of saveral addition. there is no constitutional obstacle to con-sideration and adeption of several additions and alterations in the book of common prayer proposed to he general convention of 1883. A similar report was presented on behalf of a joint committee of liturgical re-vision of the house of deputies. Referred to committee on constitutional amend-

Rev. Dr. Benjamin Franklin, of New Jersey, read a unanimous report of joint committee on marriage and divorce, appointed at the gene al convention of 1883. The report embodied the new canon; which contained several stringent modifications of the existing common marriage and divorce. The proposed new canon provides that the 1034 Mixed western 3045; white western 5048. Imarriage of any person under eighteen years of age shall not be solemnized unless the parents or guardian be present and has given written consent; that divorce can only be recognized or granted on the ground of adultery, the guilty person being ground of adultery, the guilty person being forbidden to again marry during life time of the person from whom he or she has been diverced. The proposed canon forbids the remarriage of diverced persons under certain circumstances, and provides for a penalty to be imposed on the clergy for any non-observance of the strict letter of the canon. J. Bancroft Davis, of Maryland presented a resolution providing for a committee to consider the duty of the church in its work among colored people in the United States, requiring the committee to consider and report the best practical plan to prosecute the work, draft a canon to place the plan upon a permanent basis, making the committee's report a special order for next Monday.

A Furious Gale. Galveston, Oct. 12 .- The storm which was reported by the signal service as enter-ing the Gulf of Mexico last Saturday night, reached Galveston today, and at this time, 6 p. m., a furious gale is blowing. The damage to shipping will doubtless be heavy. Telegraphic communication with heavy. Telegraphic communication with the main land will probably be entirely suspended before morning, as the gale seems to increase in velocity.
